Judicial General District Court

Business Unit Mission Statement

The Portsmouth General District Court has primary responsibility for hearing criminal, traffic and civil cases within the Third Judicial District of Virginia. The General District Court does not conduct jury trials. A judge hears all cases in this court. Fines collected for violations of City ordinances are paid to the City Treasurer. All fines collected for violation of State law are paid to the State Treasury. Court costs are set by the State Legislature. The court cannot suspend or waive costs.

Description of Services Provided

CIVIL CASES: The General District Court decides civil suits involving amounts of money up to $15,000. A suit is begun by filing a civil warrant or motion for judgement with the clerk of the court and paying a fee. Small claims are those civil suits involving amounts of money of $1,000 or less and are within the exclusive jurisdiction of this court.

CRIMINAL CASES: The General District Court decides cases in which a person is charged with a misdemeanor. A misdemeanor is any charge which carries a penalty of no more than one year in jail or a fine of up to $2,500 or both. The General District Court holds preliminary hearings in felony cases. Any charge which may be punishable by more than one year in jail is a felony. Preliminary hearings are held to determine whether there is enough evidence to justify holding the defendant for a grand jury hearing. The grand jury determines whether the accused will be indicted and held for trial by the Circuit Court.

Each defendant in a criminal case is presumed innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. Upon consideration of evidence, the judge decides the question of guilt or innocence and on the finding of guilt determines which penalty, if any, is proper and lawful.

TRAFFIC CASES: The General District Court hears cases in which a person is charged with a traffic offense. Most traffic offenses are infractions, which are punishable by a fine but no jail penalty. (Cases involving awards to individuals for damages in connection with traffic violations are civil in nature.) If a traffic violator is convicted of certain traffic violations, the Virginia Division of Motor Vehicles will assess points against their driver's license. This is an administrative action by DMV and is in addition to any sentence imposed by the judge.
